

Are you ready for a mature relationship?

Maybe you work long hours or have young children. Or perhaps you're a homebody who treasures predictability.

You're in luck! Senior pets have put their wild years behind them. Most are already housetrained, and they wouldn't dream of chewing your shoes, shredding your curtains or scaling the backyard fence.

So take a look at our many distinguished senior dogs and cats. They're ready to spend their golden years with you!
